2. Position Description

- This advertisement IS NOT for an existing Statutory Tour vacancy. The purpose is to create a list of qualified applicants that can be selected when an AMS/Det 12 Flight Commander vacancy becomes available. Board selections from this MVA will be eligible for a period of SIX MONTHS or until another board is held, whichever comes first. Prior to being offered a position, selectees must provide an updated application package to ensure that there have been no changes in status or qualifications.
- The purpose of this position is to manage, coordinate, execute, and monitor all educational activities of ANG AMS/Det 12 officer candidates.
- Responsible for effective implementation of Det 12/AMS education and training activities. Supervises up to 16 students at any given time. Counsels students on a broad range of topics including academic or military deficiencies, personal problems, progress in Det 12, and human relations. Evaluates and relates student potential to serve effectively as a commissioned officer. Critiques oral/written exercises and drill performance. Provides written summary and recommendations of all counseling. Facilitates group discussions and problem solving activities. Executes field training exercises to include high ropes events.
- Prepares instructional materials such as texts and handouts. Develops and prepares lesson plans and evaluation instruments based on educational goals and objectives. Administers, grades, and records results of examinations. Selects, prepares, and organizes training materials and visual aids. Recommends curriculum revisions and modifications of lesson presentations.
- Instructs in the areas of communication studies, professional knowledge, leadership, military studies and international security studies, and physical conditioning. Uses a variety of methods including lecture, guided discussion, role-playing, simulations, and informal discussions. Serves as a role model for students.
- Remains current and knowledgeable of developments in assigned subject matter areas. Identifies and makes recommendations on new materials gathered from conferences, workshops, seminars, Web/Internet research, and professional readings. Supplements texts with additional sources of information to clarify subject matter. Searches for new and innovative ways to develop, update, and present curriculum materials.

- Coordinates with military and civilian officials regarding educational field trips and special events.
